

Results / Reports

Critical Report

Critical hospital patient results will be called directly to nursing units and outpatient results will be called to requesting physician's office during office hours. (After hours the result will be called to the MD covering for the patient's physician.) In all cases the receiver will be asked to read back results. CLIA '88 regulations require identified critical values to be called 24 hours/day, 7 days a week.