

TEST CANCELLATIONS:

There will be no charge for a test request cancelled prior to set-up. Requests for cancellation received after the assay has been set up will be reviewed. Test cancellations caused by improper collection and handling or insufficient quantity will result in notification to the physician regarding the status of the test. If the lab is unable to obtain a satisfactory analytical result, there is no charge.